HOUSE .- The Speaker announced the following select committee on the Senate bill to sholish the franking privilege: Messra, Vallandigham, Kellogg, of Ills., Burnett, Adams, of Ky., and Stokes.

Mr. Lovejoy asked leave to introduce a preamble and resolution, reciting the rights and privileges of citizens of the several States under the Constitution: Whereas it is alleged by responsible parties, that citizens of some of the States going into other States on business, such as the collecting of debte, teaching ond other like lawful business, have been personally treated with indignity and violence and driven from their property, for certain sentiments they may have held, and without allegation of crime; and whereas, an alleged practice, similar to the European passport system is springing up; therefore

RESOLVED, That a committee of five be appointed to inquire into the above recited facts, and whether any further legislation is necessary to give effect to the said provision of the Constitution, and that the committee be empowered to send for per soos and papers.

Ms. Lovejoy demanded a vote. On the passing of the resolution objections were
